

Start here 1	As you work on this question with your group, reflect on the very personal application of Christ's forgiveness. Read the scripture or catechism excerpts below and then answer the question(s). If you are not the first group to answer the question, you will need to challenge yourselves to dig deeper to add something new that the previous group(s) did not mention. After you have written out your group's response, pass this sheet to the next team.
Read 2	D. Read Romans 8:31-39 and Psalm 103:12 ³¹What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?³²He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?³³ Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.³⁴Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?³⁶As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered."³⁷No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.³⁸For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers,³⁹ nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. ¹² As far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.
Discuss 3	Is there any sin so big that God, through His Son Jesus, won't forgive it? Explain your response and give examples to support your answer.
