A HIGHER THINGS RETREAT

February 24-25, 2023
Trinity Lutheran Church in Lowell, IN

About this topic...

The catechism is full of weird stuff Christians believe. Christ, who was dead, is risen. Baptism now saves you. We eat and drink His body and blood in communion. We strive to love our neighbor. The catechism answers "what does this (weird stuff) mean?" but it also shapes what we look like. If you believe the stove is hot, it shapes whether or not you'll touch it. If you believe what the catechism teaches, it shapes your practice. You worship according to what you believe, and you also believe according to what you worship. Our beliefs and our practices match!

Join us as Pastor Harrison Goodman, content executive at Higher Things, helps us understand what it looks like when we live out what we confess.

What is a Higher Things Retreat?

Picture the sanctuary filled with teenagers, eager for the organ to begin the opening lines of the liturgy or their favorite hymns, listening intently as they learn how their Lutheran faith applies to their lives and relationships, and laughing as they horse around playing games and getting to know other youth from the area. This Retreat will give youth and adults a glimpse of what happens at a Higher Things youth conference and what a typical conference day looks like!

Lead me to [5]the rock that is higher than I.
3 For thou hast been a refuge
for me,
A strong tower from the enemy.

I will take refuge in the covert

my vows:
Thou hast [10]given me the heri-

That I may daily perform my God alone a Refuge from Treachery and Oppression.

For the Chief Musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

62 My soul [11]waiteth in silence
for God only:
From him cometh my salvation.
2 He only is my rock and my sal-

He is my high tower; I shall [12]That ye may slay him, all of you,

Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

down from his dignity;
They delight in lies;
They bless with their mouth,
but they curse inwardly.
