EIGHTH, NINTH, AND TENTH COMMANDMENTS

Unit 1: Lesson 6

Guided Notes: Answer Key

1. What is the gift of the Eighth Commandment?

God gives us a reputation (our good name).

2. What does “explain everything in the kindest way” mean?

Put the best construction on what other people say and do. Cut your neighbor some slack, show them mercy, cover their words and actions with Jesus’ blood and forgiveness.

3. How does breaking the Eighth Commandment speak against the Cross for your neighbor?

Jesus died on the Cross for all of the evils you may be talking about. Those sins are gone. If Christ forgave it, why are you still talking about it?

4. Is it breaking the Eighth Commandment if it’s true?

If what we are saying about another isn’t “defending him, speaking well of him, and explaining everything in the kindest way” then, yes, it is still breaking the Eighth Commandment.

5. Who is appointed to hear rumors and negative things about a person?

Judges, teachers, etc.

6. What are the gifts of the Ninth and Tenth Commandments?

God gives us contentment (a state of happiness and satisfaction).

7. What is coveting? Is it only wanting sinful things?

Coveting is a sin of the heart and mind; a sin that takes place inside of us.

Coveting is longing for the things that have not been given to us. One can covet even God’s good gifts that other people have.
